

The University at Buffalo Confucius Institute presents

Understanding China

A 30-hour National Consortium for Teaching about Asia Seminar

In association with the Buffalo Teacher Center and the Five College Center for East Asian Studies

Overview

This seminar provides teachers with content and resources to more effectively teach about Chinese history and culture. Western New York professors and other specialists present in-depth information and materials on Chinese history, geography, religion, literature, language, music and art.

June 26 – 30, 2017

Confucius Institute
113 UB Commons
University at Buffalo

Who can participate?

The seminar is open to 20 teachers in Western NY who want to more effectively incorporate information about China into their curriculum. Elementary and secondary teachers of Social Studies, English, Music, Art, LOTE, librarians and administrators are encouraged to apply.

Teachers receive

- Quality instruction about China from leading experts in the field
- $150 in textbooks and primary source materials
- $150 stipend upon completion of seminar requirements
- One-year subscription to Education about Asia

Participant responsibilities

- Attend 30 hours of classes during the week-long seminar
- Create a written implementation plan showing how information and resources from the seminar will be used in your classes
- Implement your plan in the 2017-2018 school year

How to apply?

Complete the attached application, with a brief statement and your principal's signature.

Mail or email to:

Bruce Acker
Associate Director
UB Confucius Institute
520 Lee Entrance, Suite 113
Buffalo, NY 14228

backer@buffalo.edu

www.confuciusinstitute.buffalo.edu

With generous funding from the Freeman Foundation and the Confucius Institute